Diamond, Coral and Pearl Earrings

We are delighted to introduce Lyme Fine Jewellery, exclusively online, as part of our selection of Precious Jewellery brands in The Jewellery Room at La Maison Couture.

Lyme Fine Jewellery, founded by Celia Weinstock, is an exquisite range of bespoke jewellery comprising both privately commissioned jewellery pieces as well as themed collections. Handmade with finest quality precious and semi-precious gemstones and set in 18k gold, Celia's unique designs are inspired by the elegance of historical and cultural eras and evoke a nostalgic sense of vintage glamour with a contemporary edge.

After graduating from Oxford University, Celia studied Jewellery Design at the Gemological Institute of America before founding Lyme Fine Jewellery in 2009, which she named after her maternal ancestral home, the magnificent Lyme Park, in Cheshire.

Some of the stunning pieces that we have chosen to feature from Celia's debut collection draw from her Eastern influences. With reference to Tibetan manuscripts, Ancient Buddhist and Chinese symbols, using a selection of oriental stones mixed with coloured diamonds...

LYME FINE JEWELLERY

The exquisite precious jewellery pieces in Celia Weinstock's collection for her recently founded company, Lyme Fine Jewellery, pay homage to her maternal ancestral stately home, Lyme Park in Cheshire. Celia creates jewellery on commission, alongside themed collections, hand-making each piece with precious and semi-precious gemstones set in 18k gold. Taking inspiration from Art Deco, Naturalistic and ancient Asian motifs, her designs evoke the elegance and style of historical and cultural eras and combine a sense of old world glamour with a contemporary edge.
